CCTI MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

I. INDUSTRY MEMBER

A manufacturer in the United States of composite (paperboard) cans, tubes, cores, fibre drums, spools, ribbon blocks, bobbins, and related products for commercial sale. Dues are based on a company's prior calendar year gross sales of industry products.

Based on each company's reported gross sales figure, annual dues are computed as follows for independent companies with sales of less than or equal to $37 million in annual sales:

II. INTERNATIONAL INDUSTRY MEMBER

A manufacturer of products defined in the Industry Member Category, located in countries other than the U.S.

III. ASSOCIATE MEMBER

A supplier of machinery, materials, or services to members in Categories I, II, and III. Independent recyclers and consultants providing a service to industry manufacturers also qualify for associate membership.

V. *RETIRED MEMBER - A previous industry executive (manufacturer or supplier) now retired. FREE to all retired members.

VI. *PACKAGING STUDENT MEMBER - An undergraduate or graduate level student from any paper and packaging school worldwide. Annual dues are $35. * CCTI offers these non-voting members substantially reduced registration fees for all meetings and publications.

Membership Agreement:

CCTI is truly a unique organization among manufacturing associations and we take great pride in the benefits, resources, and services that we are able to provide members. What makes CCTI most unique is the commitment of resources, time and energy that members make to serving the association and its goals. We truly appreciate your interest in this association and we look forward to working with you.

As a member of the Composite Can and Tube Institute, you and your fellow company employees will enjoy full access to all of CCTI's member services, benefits and resources. We encourage you to make full use of all of these components of membership and to commit to attending at least one association event annually.

NOTE: APPLICABLE TO ALL MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES:

Dues are assessed as of May 1, which is the first day of the Composite Can and Tube Institute's fiscal year, and become the member's obligation for a full year, whether or not the membership continues. If a merger or acquisition occurs among two or more member companies, the dues will be paid on the basis of separate companies until the following year. Although payment in full of the initial invoice is standard, members may choose to remit quarterly or monthly. Dues are payable in U.S. funds.

Dues payment are deductible by members as an ordinary and necessary business expense under Section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code. No portion of member dues are currently used for lobbying activities. However, in accordance with Section 10701(a) of the Revenue Act (H.R. 3545) passed by Congress December 1987, contributions or gifts to CCTI are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.
